

Proclamation

CITY OF ALBANY, NEW YORK

Office of the Mayor

WHEREAS: Americans are served every single day by public servants at the federal, state, county, and city levels, and it is these unsung heroes that do the work which keeps our nation running; and

WHEREAS: Public employees take not only jobs, but oaths of service; and

WHEREAS: Many public servants, including military personnel, police officers, firefighters, border patrol officers, embassy employees, health care professionals, and others risk their lives each day in service to the people of the United States of America and around the world; and

WHEREAS: Day in and day out they provide the diverse services demanded by the American people and our government with efficiency and integrity; and

WHEREAS: Without these public servants at every level, continuity would be impossible in an environment that regularly changes leaders and elected officials.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Gerald D. Jennings, Mayor of the City of Albany, New York do hereby proclaim the week of May 1st – 7th, 2011 as in the City of Albany, New York, and all citizens are encouraged to recognize the accomplishments and contributions of government employees at all levels – federal, state, county and city.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the City of Albany, New York to be affixed this 1st day of March, 2011.
