Public Service Recognition Week

WHEREAS, Americans are served every single day by public servants at the federal, state, county and city levels, and these unsung heroes do the work that keeps our nation working; and*

WHEREAS, public employees take not only jobs, but oaths; and*

WHEREAS, many public servants, including military personnel, police officers, firefighters, border patrol officers, embassy employees, health care professionals and others, risk their lives each day in service to the people of the United States and around the world; and*

WHEREAS, public servants include teachers, doctors and scientists; train conductors and astronauts; nurses and safety inspectors; laborers, computer technicians and social workers; and countless other occupations; and day in and day out they provide the diverse services demanded by the American people of their government with efficiency and integrity; and*

WHEREAS, without these public servants at every level, continuity would be impossible in a democracy that regularly changes its leaders and elected officials;*

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Anja Reinke, Mayor of the City of Burbank, do hereby proclaim, May 1-7, 2011 as PUBLIC SERVICE RECOGNITION WEEK in the City of Burbank, and encourage all citizens to recognize the accomplishments and contributions of government employees at all levels – federal, state, county and municipal.*

ANJA REINKE, MAYOR
