

JOE ADAME
Mayor, City of Corpus Christi

PROCLAMATION
Public Recognition Week – May 1-7, 2011

WHEREAS, Americans are served every single day by public servants at the federal, state, county and city levels; and these unsung heroes do the work that keeps our nation working; and public employees take not only jobs, but oaths; and

WHEREAS, many public servants, including military personnel, police officers, firefighters, border patrol officers, embassy employees, health care professionals and others, risk their lives each day in service to the people of the United States and around the world; and

WHEREAS, public servants include teachers, doctors, scientists, train conductors, astronauts, nurses, safety inspectors, laborers, computer technicians and social workers as well as countless other occupations; and day in and day out they provide the diverse services demanded by the American people of their government with efficiency and integrity; and

WHEREAS, without these public servants at every level, continuity would be impossible in a democracy that regularly changes its leaders and elected officials.

NOW, therefore, pursuant to the powers vested in me as Mayor of the City of Corpus Christi, I do hereby proclaim,

May 1-7, 2011, as

“Public Service Recognition Week”

in Corpus Christi, Texas and encourage all citizens to recognize the accomplishments and contributions of government employees at all levels – federal, state, county, and city.

DULY SIGNED ON THIS, THE 11th DAY OF APRIL, 2011.
