

OFFICE OF THE MAYOR
City of Eugene, Oregon
PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS: Americans are served every single day by public servants at the federal, state, county and city levels. These unsung heroes do the work that keeps our nation working; and

WHEREAS: Public employees take not only jobs, but oaths; and

WHEREAS: Many public servants, including military personnel, police officers, firefighters, border patrol officers, embassy employees, health care professionals, and others, risk their lives each day in service to the people of the United States, and around the world; and

WHEREAS: Public servants include teachers, doctors, and scientists – train conductors and astronauts – nurses and safety inspectors – laborers, computer technicians, social workers – and countless other occupations; and

WHEREAS: Day in and day, out public servants provide diverse services demanded by the American people of their government with efficiency and integrity; and

WHEREAS: Without these public servants at every level, continuity would be impossible in a democracy that regularly changes its leaders and elected officials,

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Kitty Percy, Mayor of the City of Eugene, do hereby proclaim Sunday, May 1 through Saturday, May 7, 2011, as

“Public Service Recognition Week”

and encourage all citizens to recognize the accomplishments and contributions of government employees at all levels – federal, state, county, and city.

Kitty Percy
