

PROCLAMATION

We the Mayor and the City Council, by virtue of the authority vested by the City of Galveston, Texas, do proclaim

May 1st-7th, 2011

“Public Service Recognition Week”

in the City of Galveston

WHEREAS, Americans are served every single day by public servants at the federal, state, county and city levels. These unsung heroes do the work that keeps our nation working; and,

WHEREAS, many public servants, including military personnel, police officers, firefighters, border patrol officers, embassy employees, health care professionals and others, risk their lives each day in service to the people of the United States and around the world; and,

WHEREAS, public servants include teachers, doctors and scientists...train conductors and astronauts...nurses and safety inspectors...laborers, computer technicians and social workers...and countless other occupations. Day in and day out they provide the diverse services demanded by the American people of their government with efficiency and integrity; and,

WHEREAS, without these public servants at every level, continuity would be impossible in a democracy that regularly changes its leaders and elected officials.

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Mayor and City Council for the City of Galveston, Texas set seal hereto, that May 1-7, 2011, is Public Service Recognition Week. All citizens are encouraged to recognize the accomplishments and contributions of government employees at all levels – federal, state, county and city.
