

OFFICE OF THE MAYOR, CITY OF GREENVILLE

Proclamation

WHEREAS, Americans are served every single day by public servants at the federal, state, county and city levels. These unsung heroes do the work that keeps our nation working;

WHEREAS, public employees take not only jobs, but oaths;

WHEREAS, many public servants, including military personnel, police officers, firefighters, border patrol officers, embassy employees, health care professionals and others, risk their lives each day in service to the people of the United States and around the world;

WHEREAS, public servants include administrative support professionals, teachers, nurses, doctors, safety inspectors, laborers, computer technicians, social workers and countless other occupations. Day in and day out they provide the diverse services demanded by the American people of their government with efficiency and integrity; and

WHEREAS, without these public servants at every level, continuity would be impossible in a democracy that regularly changes its leaders and elected officials.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Patricia C. Dunn, Mayor of the City of Greenville, North Carolina, do hereby proclaim the month of May 1-7, 2011 as in Greenville, and encourage all citizens to recognize the accomplishments and contributions of government employees at all levels – federal, state, local, and city, and urge all citizens to join in expressing their appreciation to these individuals.

This 29th day of April, 2011.
