

City of Irving Office of the Mayor

Proclamation

WHEREAS: Americans are served every single day by public servants at the federal, state, county and city levels; and

WHEREAS: Public employees take not only jobs, but oaths; and

WHEREAS: Many public servants, including military personnel, police officers, firefighters, border patrol officers, embassy employees, health care professionals and others, risk their lives each day in service to the people of the United States and around the world; and

WHEREAS: Public servants include teachers, doctors and scientists...train conductors and astronauts...nurses and safety inspectors...laborers, computer technicians and social workers and countless other occupations; day in and day out they provide the diverse services demanded by the American people of their government with efficiency and integrity; and

WHEREAS: Without these public servants at every level, continuity would be impossible in a democracy that regularly changes its leaders and elected officials.

NOW THEREFORE, I, Herbert A. Gears, Mayor of the City of Irving, Texas, do hereby proclaim May 1-7, 2011 as:

Public Service Recognition Week

in Irving, Texas, and urge appropriate recognition thereof.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the City to be affixed this 25th day of April, 2011.

Herbert A. Gears
