

Proclamation

WHEREAS, Americans are served every single day by public servants at the federal, state, county and city levels; and

WHEREAS, These unsung heroes do the work that keeps our nation working; and

WHEREAS, Public employees take not only jobs, but oaths; and

WHEREAS, Many public servants, including military personnel, police officers, firefighters, border patrol officers, embassy employees, health care professionals and others, risk their lives each day in service to the people of the United States and around the world; and

WHEREAS, Public servants include teachers, doctors, scientists, train conductors, astronauts, nurses, safety inspectors, laborers, computer technicians, social workers, and countless other occupations; and

WHEREAS, Day in and day out, they provide the diverse services demanded by the American people of their government with efficiency and integrity; and

WHEREAS, Without these public servants at every level, continuity would be impossible in a democracy that regularly changes its leaders and elected officials.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Harvey Johnson, Jr., Mayor of the City of Jackson, Mississippi, do hereby proclaim May 1 – 7, 2011 as

Public Service Recognition Week

in Jackson, Mississippi and urge all citizens to recognize and participate in its observance.

Given under my hand and seal of the City of Jackson, Mississippi, the 1st day of May, 2011

Harvey Johnson, Jr., Mayor
