

Office of the Mayor
Lake Charles, Louisiana

Proclamation

WHEREAS, Americans are served every single day by public servants at the federal, state, county and city levels. These unsung heroes dot the work that keeps our nation working; and

WHEREAS, public employees take not only jobs, but oaths as well. Many public servants, including military personnel, police officers, firefighters, border patrol officers, embassy employees, health care professionals and other risk their lives each day in service to the people of the United States and around the world; and

WHEREAS, public servants include teachers, doctors, scientists, train conductors, astronauts, nurses, safety inspectors, laborers, computer technicians, social workers and countless other occupations. Day in and day out they provide the diverse services demanded by the American people of their government with efficiency and integrity; and

WHEREAS, without these public servants at every level, continuity would be impossible in a democracy that regularly changes its leaders and elected officials; and

NOW, THEREFORE, I, RANDY ROACH, Mayor of the City of Lake Charles, in the sovereign State of Louisiana, DO HEREBY PROCLAIM the week of May 1-7, 2011 as in the City of Lake Charles and urge all citizens to recognize the accomplishments and contributions of government employees at all levels; federal, state, county and city.

PUBLIC SERVICE RECOGNITION WEEK

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the official seal of the City of Lake Charles on this Date April 19, 2011
