

City of Lauderhill PROCLAMATION

Whereas, public employees take not only jobs, but also oaths, and the Public Service recognition week is held to honor the millions of public employees at the federal, state, county, and city levels; and

Whereas, Americans are served every single day by public servants at the federal, state, county and city levels. These unsung heroes do the work that keeps our nation working; and

Whereas, many public servants, including military personnel, police officers, firefighters, border patrol officers, embassy employees, health care professionals and others, risk their lives each day in service to the people of the United States and around the world; and

Whereas, public servants include an array of professions from teachers, doctors and scientists, to train conductors and astronauts, nurses and safety inspectors, laborers, computer technicians, social workers, project managers and countless occupations. Day in and day out they provide diverse services demanded by the people from their government, with efficiency and integrity; and

Whereas, without these public servants at every level, continuity would be impossible in a democracy that regularly changes its leaders and elected officials; and

Whereas, it is appropriate that public servants be recognized for their dedicated service, and all citizens are encouraged to recognize the accomplishments and contributions of government employees at all levels – federal, state, county and city; and

Whereas, this proclamation has been requested by Mayor Richard J. Kaplan.

Now Therefore, I, Richard J. Kaplan, Mayor of the City of Lauderhill, along with Vice Mayor Howard Berger, Commissioners M. Margaret Bates, Hayward J. Benson, Jr. and Ken Thurston do hereby proclaim the week of May 1 – 7, 2011 as:

“Public Service Recognition Week”

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I HAVE HEREUNTO SET MY HAND AND CAUSED THE OFFICIAL SEAL OF THE CITY OF LAUDERHILL, FLORIDA, TO BE AFFIXED THIS 2ND DAY OF MAY, 2011.
