

Office of the Mayor

CITY OF MILWAUKEE

Proclamation

Whereas:

The City of Milwaukee joins President Obama, the U.S. Congress and the rest of the country in recognizing all federal, state, county and local government employees for their hard work and dedication during Public Service Recognition Week from May 1-7, 2011; and,

WHEREAS, Public Service Recognition Week has been celebrated since 1985 to educate citizens about the ways in which government serves the people; and,

WHEREAS, Public Service Recognition Week is an annual opportunity to celebrate the daily work of our nation's public servants and to improve public understanding of and appreciation for their contributions; and,

WHEREAS, Public Service Recognition Week honors the unsung heroes whose dedication to public service enables our democracy to function with integrity and efficiency; and,

WHEREAS, Public Service Recognition Week is a time for citizens to show their appreciation for all public servants, including teachers, doctors, police officers, firefighters, military personnel, embassy employees, health care professionals, scientists, train conductors, astronauts, nurses, safety inspectors, laborers, computer technicians, social workers and countless other occupations; and,

WHEREAS, The City of Milwaukee commends and thanks all public servants throughout the City, the State of Wisconsin and the entire United States for their tireless efforts;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, TOM BARRETT, Mayor of the City of Milwaukee, do hereby proclaim May 1-7, 2011, to be

PUBLIC SERVICE RECOGNITION WEEK

throughout the City of Milwaukee.

TOM BARRETT
Mayor
