

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, Public Service Recognition Week has been celebrated each year since 1985 and is a time set aside to promote awareness and appreciation for public employees at the federal, state, county, and local levels; and

WHEREAS, Public Service Recognition Week provides opportunities to educate communities about the wide variety of critical services provided by public employees and the many ways they touch the lives of citizens each day; and

WHEREAS, City of Olathe employees set the standard of excellence in public service and are committed to serving our community with respect, accountability, initiative, and integrity; and

WHEREAS, the dedication and commitment of City employees often extends into the community as well, through volunteer activities outside working hours and during retirement years; and

WHEREAS, the City of Olathe is pleased and proud to join other local governments across the nation in observing Public Service Recognition Week and celebrating the many vital contributions of City employees to our City organization and community.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Michael Copeland, Mayor of the City of Olathe, do hereby proclaim May 2-6, 2011, as in Olathe, urging all citizens to join in honoring our City employees and recognizing their achievements and contributions to our community and the quality of life for all Olatheans.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the City of Olathe to be affixed this third day of May, 2011.

Michael Copeland, Mayor

Donald T. Howell, City Clerk
