

CITY OF PASADENA

PROCLAMATION

Whereas each day, employees in the public sector keep our nation moving forward by providing effective services at the federal, state, county, and local levels, and playing an important role in maintaining our democratic system; and

Whereas these public servants include teachers, doctors and scientists, train conductors and astronauts, nurses and safety inspectors, laborers, computer technicians and social workers, and countless other occupations; and

Whereas many public servants, including military personnel, police officers, firefighters, border patrol officers, embassy employees, healthcare professionals, and others risk their lives in service to the people of the United States and to others around the world; and

Whereas in this era of limited resources, the challenge of meeting the expectations of the public is more difficult than ever;

Now, Therefore I, Bill Bogaard, Mayor of the City of Pasadena, on behalf of the City Council, do hereby proclaim May 1-7, 2011 in Pasadena as

Public Service Recognition Week
