Proclamation

"PUBLIC SERVICE RECOGNITION WEEK - 2011"

WHEREAS, many public servants, including military personnel, police officers, firefighters, border patrol officers, embassy employees, health care professionals and others, risk their lives each day in service to the people of the United States and around the world; and

WHEREAS, since 1985, the first week in May has been set aside to honor the public servants who serve Americans every day at the federal, state, county and city levels by supplying continuity to our democratic society; and

WHEREAS, dedicated public servants are an integral part of improving the quality of life, the unsung heroes that keep our nation working by providing diverse services with efficiency and integrity; and

WHEREAS, the effectiveness and efficiency of government depend in large measure on public employees, who work to provide service of the quality and quantity required and expected by the public on a daily basis; and

WHEREAS, public employees make great contributions to their communities by serving in areas such as health, education, crime prevention, fire protection, and conservation; and

WHEREAS, the United States and the City of Plano recognize the dedication and talents of public employees, as well as the importance of the services they render at all levels of government;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, PHIL DYER, MAYOR OF THE CITY OF PLANO, TEXAS, do hereby proclaim the week of May 1 - 7, 2011 as "Public Service Recognition Week" in Plano, and I do thereby encourage all citizens to join me and the Plano City Council in expressing appreciation for the vital contributions made daily by public employees at all levels, especially in our city and the surrounding community.
