

Resolution

Public Service Recognition Week

WHEREAS, Americans are served every single day by public servants at the federal, state, county and city levels; and

WHEREAS, public employees take not only jobs, but oaths; and

WHEREAS, many public servants, including military personnel, police officers, firefighters, border patrol officers, embassy employees, health care professionals and others, risk their lives each day in service to the people of the United States and around the world; and

WHEREAS, public servants include teachers, doctors, scientists, astronauts, nurses, safety inspectors, laborers, computer technicians, social workers, and countless other occupations who day in and day out provide the diverse services demanded by the American people of their government with efficiency and integrity; and

WHEREAS, without these public servants at every level, continuity would be impossible in a democracy that regularly changes its leaders and elected officials; and

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Kevin Johnson, Mayor of Sacramento, do hereby announce and proclaim to the citizens and set seal hereto, that May 1-7, 2011, is Public Service Recognition Week. All citizens are encouraged to recognize the accomplishments and contributions of government employees at all levels- federal, state, county and city.

ISSUED: This 1st Day of May 2011.
