~Public Service Recognition Week~

WHEREAS, Americans are served every single day by public servants at the federal, state, county, and city levels. These unsung heroes do the works that keeps our nation working; and

WHEREAS, public employees take not only jobs, but oaths; and

WHEREAS, many public servants, including military personnel, police officers, firefighters, border patrol officers, embassy employees, health professionals and others, risk their lives each day in service to the people of the United States and around the world; and

WHEREAS, public servants include teachers, doctors, nurses, laborers, social workers and countless other occupations. Day in and day out they provide the diverse services demanded by the American people of their government with efficiency and integrity; and

WHEREAS, without these public servants at every level, continuity would be impossible in a democracy that regularly changes its leaders and elected officials.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Mayor Dennis Donohue, do hereby proclaim May 1 – 7, 2011 Public Service Recognition Week throughout the City of Salinas. All citizens are encouraged to recognize the accomplishments and contributions of government employees at all levels – federal, state, county and city.

Dated this 1st day of May 2011.

Salinas Mayor Dennis Donohue
