The City of San Diego
Proclamation

PUBLIC SERVICE
RECOGNITION
WEEK

WHEREAS, Public Service Recognition Week honors the men and women who serve America as federal, state and local government employees; and

WHEREAS, Americans are served every single day by public servants at the federal, state, county, and city levels, where these unsung heroes do the work that keeps our nation moving forward; and

WHEREAS, public service employees take not only jobs, but oaths; and

WHEREAS, many public servants, including military personnel, police officers, firefighters, border patrol officers, embassy employees, health care professionals, and others, risk their lives each day in service to the people of the United States and around the world; and

WHEREAS, public servants include teachers, doctors and scientists, train conductors and astronauts, nurses and safety inspectors, laborers, computer technicians, social workers, and countless other occupations who day in and day out provide the diverse services demanded by the American people of their government with efficiency and integrity; and

WHEREAS, without public servants at every level, continuity in a democracy that regularly changes its leaders and elected officials would be impossible. NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED, THAT I, JERRY SANDERS, the 34th Mayor of the City of San Diego, do hereby announce and proclaim the week of May 1-7, 2011 to be "Public Service Recognition Week" in the City of San Diego to recognize the accomplishments and contributions of government employees at all levels.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I HAVE HEREUNTO SET MY HAND, THIS DAY,
AND HAVE CAUSED THE SEAL TO BE AFFIXED HERETO:

JERRY SANDERS
MAYOR
