

WHEREAS,

Americans are served every day by public service employees at the federal, state, county, and city level. These unsung heroes do the work that keeps our nation going; and

WHEREAS,

public employees take not only jobs, but oaths; and

WHEREAS,

many public service employees, including military personnel, police officers, firefighters, border patrol officers, embassy employees, health care professionals, and others, risk their lives each day in service to the people of the United States and around the world; and

WHEREAS,

public service employees include teachers, doctors, scientists, nurses, safety inspectors, computer technicians, social workers, laborers, computer technicians, astronauts, train conductors, and countless other occupations, providing the diverse services that keep our government and nation functioning with efficiency and integrity; and

WHEREAS,

without public service employees at every level, continuity in government would be impossible in a democracy that regularly changes its leaders and elected officials;

THEREFORE,

I, Melinda Hamilton, Mayor, on behalf of the Sunnyvale City Council, do hereby proclaim the week of May 1 - 7, 2011, as in the City of Sunnyvale, and encourage all citizens to recognize the accomplishments and contributions of government employees.

PUBLIC SERVICE RECOGNITION WEEK

PROCLAIMED THIS FIRST DAY OF MARCH, 2011.

Melinda Hamilton
Mayor
