

City of Tulsa

Mayor
Dewey F. Bartlett, Jr.

PROCLAMATION

*WHEREAS, Americans are served every single day by public servants at the federal, state, county and city levels; and,
WHEREAS, these unsung heroes do the work that keeps our nation working; and,
WHEREAS, many public servants, including military personnel, police officers, firefighters, border patrol officers, embassy employees, health care professionals and others, risk their lives each day in service to the people of the United States and around the world; and,
WHEREAS, public servants include teachers, doctors, scientists, train conductors, astronauts, nurses, safety inspectors, laborers, computer technicians, social workers and countless other occupations; and,
WHEREAS, everyday these public servants provide the diverse service demanded by the American people of their government with efficiency and integrity; and, WHEREAS, without these public servants at every level, continuity would be impossible in a democracy that regularly changes its leaders and elected officials;*

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Dewey F. Bartlett, Jr., Mayor of the City of Tulsa, do hereby proclaim May 1-7, 2011 as

"Public Service Recognition Week"

in the City of Tulsa

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the City of Tulsa to be affixed on the first day of May, Two Thousand Eleven.

Dewey F. Bartlett, Jr.
