

PROCLAMATION

of The City of Wichita, Kansas Founded in 1870

Whereas, Americans are served every single day by public servants at the federal, state, county, and city levels. These unsung heroes do the work that keeps our nation working, many of whom are sworn by oath; and

Whereas, many public servants, including military personnel, police officers, firefighters, border patrol officers, embassy employees, health care professionals, and others risk their lives each day in service to the people of the United States and around the world; and

Whereas, public servants include teachers, doctors, and scientists ... train conductors and astronauts ... nurses and safety inspectors ... laborers, computer technicians, and social workers ... and countless other occupations. Day in and day out they provide the diverse services demanded by the American people of their government with efficiency and integrity; and

Whereas, without these public servants at every level, continuity would be impossible in a democracy that regularly changes its leaders and elected officials;

Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved, that I, Carl Brewer, Mayor of the City of Wichita, Kansas, do hereby proclaim May 1 - 7, 2011, as

Public Service Recognition Week

and encourage all citizens to recognize the accomplishments and contributions of government employees at all levels – federal, state, county, and city.

May 1, 2011

Date

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Carl Brewer". The signature is written in a cursive style and is enclosed within a simple, hand-drawn oval outline.

Mayor, City of Wichita