A Proclamation

PUBLIC SERVICE RECOGNITION WEEK
MAY 1 – 7, 2011

WHEREAS, Americans are served every day by public servants at the federal, state, county and municipal levels. These unsung heroes do the work that keeps our local, state and national government running; and

WHEREAS, Many public servants, including military personnel, police officers, firefighters, border patrol officers, embassy employees, health care professionals and others, risk their lives each day in service to the people of the United States and around the world; and

WHEREAS, Public servants include teachers, doctors, scientists, train conductors, astronauts, nurses, safety inspectors, laborers, computer technicians, social workers and countless other occupations. They provide the diverse services demanded by the American people of their government with efficiency and integrity; and

WHEREAS, Public servants are vital at every level of government;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, JOHN H. LYNCH, GOVERNOR of the State of New Hampshire, do hereby proclaim MAY 1 – 7, 2011 as PUBLIC SERVICE RECOGNITION WEEK. All citizens are encouraged to recognize the accomplishments and contributions of government employees at all levels- federal, state, county, and municipal.

Given at the Executive Chamber in Concord, this 22nd day of April, in the year of Our Lord two thousand and eleven, and the independence of the United States of America, two hundred and thirty-five.

John H. Lynch
Governor
