

STATE OF TEXAS
OFFICE OF THE GOVERNOR

President Lyndon B. Johnson once said, "In no other endeavor can you more directly serve our country's cause — or the values on which we stand — than in the public service."

Public servants throughout our great state and nation provide invaluable service to their fellow citizens.

Those who devote their lives to public service deserve special recognition. To promote appreciation of public servants and the positive contributions they make, an awareness campaign will be conducted during a week in May.

At this time, I encourage all Texans to recognize the devotion of public servants, whose work keeps the wheels of government turning.

Therefore, I, Rick Perry, Governor of Texas, do hereby proclaim
May 1-7, 2011, to be

Public Service Recognition Week

in Texas, and urge the appropriate recognition whereof.

In official recognition whereof,
I hereby affix my signature this the 14th day of April, 2011.

Governor of Texas
