

PROCLAMATION

Public Service Recognition Week
May 1-7, 2011

WHEREAS, Americans are served every single day by public servants at the federal, state, county and city levels. These unsung heroes do the work that keeps our nation working; and

WHEREAS, Public employees take not only jobs, but oaths; and

WHEREAS, Many public servants, including military personnel, police officers, firefighters, border patrol officers, embassy, health care professionals and others, risk their lives each day in service to the people of the United States and around the world; and

WHEREAS, Public servants include teachers, doctors and scientists, train conductors and astronauts, nurses and safety inspectors, laborers, computer technicians, social workers and countless other occupations. Day in and day out they provide the diverse services demanded by the American people of their government with efficiency and integrity; and

WHEREAS, Without these public servants at every level, continuity would be impossible in democracy that regularly changes its leaders and elected officials; and

NOW THEREFORE: We, the Board of County Commissioners of Washington County, Maryland, hereby proclaim the week of May 1-7, 2011 as Public Service Recognition Week and encourage all citizens to recognize the accomplishments and contributions of government employees at all levels - federal, state, county and city.
